

So the State of New Jersey has a stricter Do Not Call list than the federal government. Isn't this a good thing? I implore the FCC not to bow the demands of greedy telemarketers who want to bother people who clearly don't want to be bothered. The issue is simple. Please don't make it complicated. Help the NJ Do Not Call list, don't hinder it.